

Concept for Paradiesli, Artists in Residence, Sigriswil P.AiR.S

An offer from the Paradiesli cultural association

1. What does the concept mean for the artist residence Paradiesli, Sigriswil?

The concept was developed to bring talented artists from all over the world together so that they can experience a unique cultural environment for contemporary art. Selected artists are invited to live and work for a period of 2x7 weeks during the winter months in the Gästehaus Paradiesli, Sigriswil in a community of 2x3 artists of all national origins.

The artist residence Paradiesli (P.AiR.S) in Sigriswil offers artists the opportunity to counteract isolation and develop creative exchange by living and working in an inspiring place. The Paradiesli is located high above Lake Thun opposite the striking and imposing Niesen mountain. The Bernese Oberland has been a place of attraction and inspiration for many well-known artists such as Macke, Hodler, Klee, Friedli and many more.

Art and its dissemination are of central importance to the P.AiR.S.

The artist residence Paradiesli welcomes artists from various fields of art, e.g. literature, drawings, photography, film / video. However, the activity must correspond to the given premises. They are free to participate in individual or joint projects and to work according to their own schedule and approach. At the end of their stay, all participants can leave an artistic "trace", a certificate of their visit, on a voluntary basis. You can decide for yourself how this should be done.

The focus of the project is on creative exchange. The artists get the chance to participate in joint work and discussions and to interact as a dynamic artistic community in order to enrich the creativity of the group and the work of the other. Communication, confrontation, observation and discovery should challenge the artists and enable them in this lively artistic and cultural environment to build on their existing skills and to expand the limits of their art.
